

ANNUAL REPORT

— 2016 —

Painting by
Olympie Lynn Trypis, Youth at Eva's

Financial information in this report covers
January 1 to September 30, 2016

In 2015, Charity Intelligence chose Eva's as one of Canada's top ten high-impact charities. Every $1 invested in Eva's results in $9 of social benefit.

YOU ARE THE CHANGE-MAKERS

As the new Executive Director of Eva's, I've been struck by two big things since I took on the role. First, the tenacity and determination of the hundreds of young people we work with is remarkable. They take what Eva's provides—safe shelter, nutritious meals, kind support, and skill-building programs—and absolutely fly with it. Success stories happen every day! They show us how powerful it is to ground our response in what young people experience, need, and want.

Second, I have been struck by the incredible dedication of our caring community members who give their time, resources, and support to help end youth homelessness. Thank you for your generous support, which is directly and positively impacting the lives of youth experiencing homelessness.

At the same time, recent research reaffirms our knowledge that youth homelessness remains a major challenge that will require concerted efforts in the years ahead. Released this year, Without a Home: The National Youth Homelessness Survey, the largest survey of its kind, points to a web of policies and institutions that impact young people and can create a "pipeline to homelessness". It shows how many youth fall through the cracks, especially those who are most marginalized.

Eva's is tasked with addressing both elements: to support each individual young person and push for better systems and supports to end youth homelessness on the whole. It's not an easy mandate, but we look for inspiration from our namesake, Eva Maud Smith, who advocated for the opening of Eva's Place in 1994. She understood how important it is to meet shorter-term shelter needs and build the mechanisms to get at root causes of homelessness. It's something Eva's aims to do every day and I thank you for so generously embracing your role in solving youth homelessness.

Night & Day, Rain or Shine.
Eva's Place is where I reside.
Stormy or Foggy, Cloudy or Gray.
Eva's Place is my rainbow after a long hard day.
While the weather is changing, and the seasons are too
Eva's Place is my support who helps get me through.
They are my foundation, my rock, my umbrella, my light.
Eva's Place is the seed to a new beginning in my life.
So no matter the weather, no matter the storm,
no matter the season, or the darkness that comes along.
My future is bright, and I know that now.
My future is amazing, no one can bring me down.
My future is what I make it, no one can stop me.
Thank you Eva's Place, for helping me see that my life is worth something!

EVERY DAY, EVA'S PROVIDES SHELTER AND HOUSING FOR 123 YOUTH.

EVA'S PHOENIX

EVA'S PLACE

Emergency shelter for 40 youth and home to the Family Reconnect Program.

EVA'S SATELLITE

Emergency shelter for 33 youth, with special health supports for addiction and mental health (Canada's first harm reduction shelter for youth).

THE NEW EVA'S PHOENIX

It's the incredible support of our Capital Campaign donors that enabled the renovation, relocation, and reopening of Eva's Phoenix in the Waterworks redevelopment area at 60 Brant Street in downtown Toronto. This gorgeous transitional housing and training facility is home to 50 residents and provides critical employment and educational support for approximately 150 homeless youth every year. The City of Toronto via Build Toronto and its partner DiamondCorp provided a collective contribution of $6.56 million and our Lead Building Partner, The Home Depot Canada Foundation, provided a contribution of $1 million. Many other generous donors and supporters have contributed to support the construction.

As we strive for justice and opportunity for young people, we must strive for justice for all. Our facilities stand on the territory of the Huron-Wendat and Petun First Nations, the Seneca, and most recently, the Mississaugas of the Credit River. The territory was the subject of the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Iroquois Confederacy and Confederacy of the Ojibwe and allied nations to peaceably share and care for resources around the Great Lakes. We are grateful to work here and mindful of broken covenants and the need to strive to make right with all our relations.

EVA'S PROGRAMS

Eva's programs are designed to help youth exit homelessness and give them the skills, tools, and strengthened networks they need to build brighter futures.

EMPLOYMENT TRAINING

in high-demand fields, including construction and building maintenance and print and digital communications

EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT

to help youth access educational opportunities and achieve academic success (e.g. high school diploma, post-secondary studies)

FAMILY RECONNECT

counseling support to strengthen youth/family relationships and prevent youth homelessness

INDEPENDENT LIVING PROGRAM

that provides critical skill-building to help youth find and maintain housing and their health (e.g. cooking, financial literacy, conflict resolution)

RECREATION PROGRAM

that provides physical activity opportunities and engagement in sports, health and wellness, and arts and culture

OUR "WRAP AROUND" APPROACH

Every young person has unique needs, identities, and strengths. We provide respectful and tailored:

HARM REDUCTION AND MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT TO REDUCE THE RISKS OF SUBSTANCE USE

ACCESS TO HEALTHCARE AND HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

(e.g. dentists, physicians, psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers)

SUPPORT TO ACCESS SAFE, APPROPRIATE, AND AFFORDABLE HOUSING

COACHING/TRAINING TO SET AND MEET EDUCATION, EMPLOYMENT, AND LIFE GOALS

Eva's Education Program was given the Vital Toronto Award through KPMG and the Vital Toronto Fund at the Toronto Foundation.

I GOT ... SO MUCH ... TROUBLE ... ON MY MIND

Started this life at the age of eight
Lived in a world where I'm full of hate
Thought that in using I found a friend
Fighting with family, walking on eggshells
Made their lives hard, made it seem like hell
It was never 'bout the money or even lack thereof
Fuelled by demons, all hate, no love
Run through the city, like a marathon
Some days, it feels like I can't even go on
Now I'm getting sober, it's hard as f
I always feel like I'm s out of luck
I brought war to my family but peace to my mind
All in the process I was trying to find
Who I am, where I'm going, what to do
In reality, I gave zero f* about you
I'm trying to change, live one day at a time
Now I let the anger out through words and rhyme.
You can still catch me slippin', or back in the game
Though 5 years ago I wasn't even the same
This has gone all over like I did on the streets
Bringing love, hate, and more to those I meet
What's next, you say? I do not know
Maybe I will start to grow
I won't forget the past, it's made me who I am
It's helped me get through life, through triumphs and jams
Peace to the world that I once knew
So tell me, what makes you?

NOW IS THE TIME TO END YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

Youth at Eva's face some of the issues common to adults experiencing homelessness. But young people face unique barriers that must be addressed to prevent chronic homelessness.

1 MENTAL HEALTH

Poor mental health is one of the most prominent concerns for homeless youth.¹

- 85.4% of homeless youth report "high" symptoms/distress
- 42% of homeless youth report at least one suicide attempt
- Exposure to sexual/physical violence on the street makes homeless youth more than 3 times as likely to experience mental health risks

Youth need appropriate mental health services/supports, accessible to them where they go (e.g. in shelters, schools).

2 YOUTH EMPLOYMENT

- 43.5%: Toronto's youth unemployment rate²
- Homeless youth face added difficulties to employment (e.g. employer reluctance to hire someone without an address, little work experience)¹
- Youth need access to stable employment opportunities with livable wages to access market housing options

3 YOUTH DEVELOPMENT, RELATIONSHIPS, AND LIFE SKILLS

- Many young people are still learning skills to navigate the world, including living on their own (e.g. cooking, budgeting, landlord-tenant negotiation)
- The disruption and trauma of homelessness means that youth have even less access to these skills as they fall in/out of housing and experience interrupted relationships with parents/caring adults
- Research shows that youth need strong family-like supports to help them get and keep housing
