Case Scenarios

You and your shift partner are working running a game of volleyball. Another youth demands that they want to play basketball. Your shift partner informs the other youth that at this time volleyball is being played and perhaps when the game is done they can play. The youth keeps insisting and now yelling at your shift partner. The youth then goes over to the ball rack grabs a basketball and proceeds to through the ball into the basketball net. What do you do?

You are in the gym on your own as your shift partner has gone outside for a quick break. A youth who is a white male youth starts speaking to another youth, who is a black female very forcefully. You over hear him making racist and sexist comments to her. What do you do?
