Eva's Turns Youth Homelessness into Home

Black and Indigenous youth and young people of color are overrepresented in homeless shelters and transitional homes in Toronto. They face higher rates of housing insecurity and barriers to accessing long-term housing due to the legacy of colonialism and anti-Black racism.

Eva's is rooted in the principles of social justice. If you have a history of working in social justice; have experience working in homelessness and/or housing; and want to be a leader in one of Toronto's most pressing social issues, read on.

By working with Eva's, you'll be doing more than helping give youth shelter. You'll be giving them strength for the future.
